5

ABSTRACT

A statistics reporting process includes a status information process for receiving status information concerning individual data packets. A statistics information process receives statistical information concerning various bus conditions. A unified write process stores the status information and the statistical information on a storage device using a single write procedure.

20163138